Chapter 5

- Three Major Movements, Three Dramatic Miracles
- Chapter 5: Observe the place of Chapter 5 in the overall flow of Mark's record of the authentication of "the Gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God."
- Notice in each case, the miracle performed by Christ is contrasted with the failure of others to effect the needed result.

Chapter 5 Outline

- I. The Gerasene Demoniac (1-20)
 - II. The Woman with the Issue of Blood (5:25-34)
 - III. Jairus' Daughter (5:21-43)
- I. The Gerasene Demoniac: The Man From the Tombs (1-20)
 - A. The Man and The Spiritual Affliction (5:1-5)
 - We are immediately confronted with the reality of unrestrained, victorious evil in the life of this human being.
 - Resulted in his isolation/separation/estrangement from social & civil life

- Complete Inability to function normally
- Self-destructive—causing harm to himself
- Tormented soul
- This man is demon possessed
- In bondage—both physically & spiritually, literally & metaphorically
 1. Often been bound. Note: the spiritual bondage has resulted in the effort of community members to restrain him
 2. Constantly crying out & bruising himself w/stone. Shows how his spiritual condition has resulted in misery/anguish/self-mutilation—little doubt that if he had the means to do so, he would have attempted suicide.
 3. No mere psychological problem: This is a spiritual problem—a problem with a direct & immediate source clearly evidenced by unnatural behavior and supernatural capacity.
 - There is a hint that he had terrorized the people of the place. "Often..." "...all the people"
