

A^{bout} – Proactive Regret

B^{est} Verse – Ecclesiastes 5:16, “...As everyone comes, so they depart, and what do they gain since they toil for the wind?” I’m coin a phrase: Proactive or Premeditated Regret. The child of God can know what will come to pass even before it happens because the Revealer of Truth has made it known. He tells us ahead of time, He has appointed each of us for death, and “then to face judgement.”^{Heb9:27} So meditate on this: You and I can know ahead of time what pleases God and—by faith through love^{Gal5:6}—bend our awareness, attitudes, and actions in the direction of His desires. We know that ultimately only God, His Word, and people will go into eternity with us. So, glorify Him by loving Him. And demonstrate it by loving others per His Word throughout your life to avoid regret. Our life is like “wind.” So as Jesus’ Spirit lives in us and during this time as we live by faith, let Him produce His fruit in our lives...before it all blows away!^{Gal5:22}

C^{ommitment} – Thank you for confirming what You made my heart suspect of You, sovereign Father. You are my final Judge. You have made it clear; You will require holiness. Only by Your grace through Jesus’ love is that possible of me. Make me a lover of others so I may invest Your truth in their lives throughout my own.

* Return at noon to Columbus from Colson’s Wilberforce Weekend, so saying goodbye to sun in Orlando.
