

WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING ABOUT CAPITOL COMMISSION™ PENNSYLVANIA

Jeff Whitebread, Pennsylvania State Director

PA State Representative Matthew Baker: "Jeff Whitebread and Capitol Commission in Pennsylvania meet with lawmakers every week we are in Session to provide an opportunity for prayer and bible study that is both practical and relevant in equipping us to put our faith into every day practice. The fellowship of lawmakers, both republicans and democrats coming together to share their faith and prayer needs is a great encouragement as is rightly dividing the Word of truth through Bible study and thoughtful respectful discussion. This helps us to be grounded in what truly is important in terms of living a life in faithfulness and obedience to our Lord and Savior. I am very appreciative of the ministry and mission that Capitol Commission provides to us at the Capitol and wish them all the best in their efforts to fulfill the Great Commission through their continued dedication and commitment to share the gospel and its truths. Thank you for all your time, effort, and preparation, long commute to and from the Capitol and sacrificial expenses to minister to all of us. Many blessings to Jeff and Dave!"

PA State Representative Jerry Stern: "This ministry enables legislators an opportunity to gain a valuable lesson from Scripture and helps us to recharge our spiritual energy as we face the multitude of challenges of our job. I am so thankful for Capitol Commission and being able to interact and fellowship with fellow believers as we attempt to apply proven Biblical principles to our lives."

PA State Representative Mark Longiatti: "I have been a regular participant in the Bible Study conducted by Capitol Commission, since I first took office in 2007. Each Tuesday, when the legislature is in Session, we come together as Democrats and Republicans to have a special morning hour of prayer, Bible Study and fellowship. It has not only broadened my understanding of Scripture, but has helped me to apply the truths of the Bible to my role as a state legislator, and has given me an opportunity to build relationships with my colleagues. Jeff Whitebread, who leads Capitol Commission Pennsylvania, has become a friend and spiritual mentor."

PA State Representative Donna Oberlander: I have participated in the Capitol Commission's bible study in the Harrisburg, PA for over 4 years. I have found this to be a time of encouragement and biblical challenge that has helped me to grow spiritually and in knowledge. I find the other Members that participate have a kinship that extends outside the halls of the study and offers support during difficult times. Mr. Jeff Whitebread currently leads the study. I find his knowledge of the scripture, his ability to draw us into conversation and truly help us think through the lessons he has prepared for us is remarkable. I find this study to be priceless and one that I am thankful to be part of it each week.